

When You Need More than an Office Visit

We'll Make Multiple Visits to Your Home.

Ask your doctor about Divine Providence Home Health Services. You or someone you care about may be eligible for far more attention at home than you thought. For qualified patients, Medicare pays 100%. Divine Providence has a team of more than 75 caring professionals including nursing, physical therapy, wound and ostomy care specialists, speech therapy, occupational therapy, physiatry, psychiatric nursing, and more. Divine Providence works under orders from your doctor, and we never try to convince you to switch doctors. Consider Divine Providence for help with healthcare situations at home such as:

Care after a surgery or illness
Thorough & patient healthcare education
Rehabilitation
Health status monitoring
